

There Are More Than 20,000 Public High Schools in the Nation.

The Wall Street Journal Ranked the Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy® (IMSA) Among the Top Ten.

On April 2, 2004, The Wall Street Journal published a ranking of "successful high schools across the country." IMSA® was recognized as one of the nation's best values for its "success rate" in sending students (Class of 2003) to 10 prestigious colleges (Brown, Cornell, Dartmouth, Duke, Harvard, Pomona, Princeton, The University of Chicago, The University of Pennsylvania and Yale).

IMSA offers a tuition-free, advanced college preparatory program for academically talented Illinois students in grades 10, 11 and 12 who demonstrate interest in math and science. All enrolled students live in residence halls on campus. IMSA is an internationally-recognized pioneering educational institution created by the State of Illinois to develop talent and leadership in mathematics, science and technology.
