

- Bedding (sheets, mattress pad, blankets/comforter and pillows), all beds are twin and standard length
- Bath towel(s), washcloth(s)
- Soap, shampoo, etc.
- Prescription medication (to be turned into IMSA Staff on first day)
- Refillable water bottle
- Backpack (all materials will be provided but students may want something to carry their water bottle and other personal items)
- Desk lamp
- Reading material for free time
- Umbrella
- Bathroom floor mat (optional, could use an extra towel)
- Laundry bag (for dirty laundry)
- Lock – can be used to lock your wardrobe in your residence hall room. Please make sure to have an extra key or combination written down.
- Bug spray and sunscreen (we go outside!)
- Snacks (FOR RESIDENCE HALL USE ONLY)
- Some spending money (vending machines)
- Jeans and sweatshirt/sweaters - the AC can make some classrooms chilly
- Clothing: Shorts, t-shirts, athletic wear. Bring appropriate clothing! If you can't wear it to your school, you can't wear it at IMSA.
- Closed-toed, closed-heeled shoes that fully cover the foot, such as boots or gym-shoes (to be worn at all times in academic building, requirement for safety in a lab)
- Participants with long hair should bring pony tail holders to hold back their hair during labs or other activities.

While participants are allowed to bring electronics such as tablets and cell phones, we strictly limit their use to the residence halls and free time/lunch. We suggest that students leave laptop computers at home so they can be fully engaged in evening programming. Laptops will be provided if needed during the STEM content portion of the camp. IMSA is not responsible for any personal items that are lost or stolen.

What Not to bring to IMSA: (The following items are not allowed)

- Television
- Video game system
- Stereo system
- Cooking appliances (hot plate, microwave, etc...)
- Halogen Lamps
- Lighters/matches, candles and incense
- Large amounts of money or valuables
- Anything not allowed at your home school is not allowed at IMSA!
