Internship Coordinator

Michigan State University History Department Internship Coordinator is the main point of contact between internship sites and History undergraduate students. Responsibilities include contacting internship sites, visiting classrooms to introduce students to the program, approving internship applications, and helping students find and apply for an appropriate internship to meet their interests. During my time in the position, I established new connections with several local and national organizations like the Association for Asian Studies, and oversaw several students establish and complete their internships.

January 2020-May 2020 Michigan State University

Instructor of Record

Instructor of Record for course that I designed in the History Department, HST 201: Historical Methods and Skills: Section 006: "From Confucius to Xi Jinping: History of Chinese Political Thought." Work responsibilities include creating a syllabus, course title and topic, quizzes, assignments, and essay prompts, assigning readings, delivering lectures twice a week, holding weekly office hours, facilitating student discussion and questions in class, and grading assignments.

January 2020-May 2020, August-December 2020 Michigan State University

Writing Consultant

Writing Consultant for Michigan State University Writing Center. Work responsibilities include holding walk-in and scheduled consulting hours at Writing Center locations around campus, holding in-person and online consulting sessions with undergraduate and graduate students to help at any stage of the writing process. Writing projects that students bring in can be MSU course assignments, job applications, resumes, CVs, cover letters, graduate school applications, presentations, conference papers, thesis chapters, etc.
