

Family Day Information for Digital Commons

Digital Commons@ IMSA reflects the scholarly, innovative, and pedagogical culture of the Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy.

The goal of this institutional portfolio is to share the intellectual output of IMSA and to increase visibility and impact through worldwide access.

Types of work in Digital Commons @ IMSA include

- Conference papers/posters/presentations
- Published articles
- Independent Study
- Distinguished Student Work
- IMSA Faculty & Staff publications and research.
- Exemplary Student Work (projects that surpass expectation)
- Intern Reports
- Working papers / Technical papers
- Creative works (art, music, photography, and mixed media)
- Unpublished scholarly and creative works
- Unpublished studies, interviews, and technical reports
- Digital-born files
- Scanned electronic files

Some of the work and publications available in the Digital commons:

Faculty publications and research

https://digitalcommons.imsa.edu/eng_pr/

Academic programs

https://digitalcommons.imsa.edu/academic_programs/

Student works

https://digitalcommons.imsa.edu/student_works/

For more information on student submission to Digital Commons contact ssaeed@imsa.edu or angie@imsa.edu

<https://digitalcommons.imsa.edu/>